Two Kinds of People

1 Thessalonians 5:11

Loyd Flaherty

There are two kinds of people. — Those to take and those who give.

1. It is more blessed to give than to receive

Acts 20:35 “In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

2. All of us can be givers

God wants you to build up, motivate, and inspire other people.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 “Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.”

3. Share your experiences

Don't waste any of your experiences. Use them to encourage others and give them hope!

We each have something that God has given us to share.

With the talents, experiences and finances, we all have been given something we can give.

Conclusion: — God wants you to be blessed. The life of a giver is blessed.

A) What difficulty have you been able to overcome because someone shared their experience with you?

B) Ask our Heavenly Father to give you opportunities to share your experiences with the people who need to hear them.
