Does God Care About How I Use My Time?

Ephesians 5:15-17

Loyd Flaherty

1. Time Reveals What We Treasure

Matthew 6:21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Our calendars often reveal what our hearts truly value.

God is concerned about what is in your heart.

2. God Wants Us To Fill Our Minds With What Is Good

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Today we consume more information than any generation in history.

Our lives are powerfully influenced by what we repeatedly think about.

3. Live Wisely by Seeking God's Will

Wise people don't simply fill their schedule, they seek God's will.

Ephesians 5:15-17 Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, 16 making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.

When we know what God wants, we naturally make better use of the time He has given us. Wisdom is choosing what matters most.

Conclusion

We don't earn God's love by using our time perfectly. Because Jesus gave His life for us, our response is to offer our lives—including our time—back to Him in thanks.

This week, ask yourself:

- Where is my time going?
- What is shaping my heart?
- How can I intentionally give some of my best time to God this week?
